

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE

THIS PAGE IS INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK

HIGH COMMAND, KSOL

Kali Special Operations Legion, Headquarters

Foreword by the Commander

1. PURPOSE

Document KSOL-SOP 7-1A (Standard Operating Procedures) The purpose of this Standard Operating Procedure is to establish the fundamental knowledge, procedures, standards, and practical requirements necessary for KSOL personnel to operate effectively and safely during training, aviation activities, field exercises, and operations within BRM5. It provides a standardized framework for conduct, communication, command and control, equipment discipline, CQB, aviation coordination, leadership, and operational security.

2. SCOPE

This SOP applies to KSOL personnel participating in training, field exercises, aviation activities, and operational activities. It covers general conduct, radio procedures, chain of command, operation flow, weapon and equipment discipline, CQB, aviation procedures, command and leadership responsibilities, and operational security.

General, Kali Special Operations Legion
Commander
'Obi' Aka Vandam
Special Insertion Service, KSOL

© 2026 Kali Special Operations Legion — All Rights Reserved.

This document is proprietary KSOL training material. Unauthorized reproduction, redistribution, modification, or publication is prohibited.

HQ Based in India. Copyright laws in accordance to Indian Laws.

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES

01. General Conduct

- i. Follow the chain of command.
- ii. Address personnel by rank/callsign as appropriate.
- iii. Do not undermine appointed leadership during operations.
- iv. Any complaint/suggestion to be made during Debriefing or to the appointed Director General of Internal Affairs (DGIA).
- v. Do not disrupt training or operations.
- vi. Follow instructor and commander directions.

02. Radio Procedures

- i. Keep radio traffic concise.
- ii. Use callsigns and correct method to transmit messages.
- iii. Identify yourself when required.
- iv. Acknowledge important instructions.
- v. Report significant changes in status.
- vi. Do not use operational radio channels for unrelated conversation.

03. Chain of Command

- i. Orders pass through the established chain of command.
- ii. During a Field exercise/operation, Company Commander & Platoon Commander are the apex decision making authority. Only should they be absent, other highest ranking officer will take charge of the operation.
- iii. C2 (Command & Control) will be apex authority over anyone at all times (except Firing Range).
- iv. During Firing Range session the host/instructor of the training session becomes the Rangemaster. Rangemaster outranks even the HQ of KSOL at firing range.

04. Operation Flow

- i. Briefing/Debriefing are integral part of an operation.
- ii. People will follow the standard operation flow as mentioned in Basic Training Manual.

05. WEAPON & EQUIPMENT DISCIPLINE

- i. Maintain weapon discipline at all times.
- ii. Keep weapons under control.
- iii. Follow designated fire-control procedures.
- iv. Do not discharge weapons without authorization or operational necessity.
- v. Maintain ammunition awareness.
- vi. Report equipment failures or losses.
- vii. Do not intentionally damage equipment or vehicles.

06. CQB

- i. Maintain assigned position in the stack.
- ii. Maintain sector responsibility.
- iii. Follow the Team Leader.
- iv. Maintain weapon and muzzle discipline.
- v. Do not unnecessarily break formation.
- vi. Communicate contacts and hazards.
- vii. Maintain cross-coverage.
- viii. Follow standardized CQB commands.
- ix. Do not independently alter the clearing sequence without necessity.

07. AVIATION

- i. Follow pilot/aircrew instructions.
- ii. Board and disembark in an organized manner.
- iii. Do not interfere with aircraft controls.
- iv. Maintain aircraft discipline.
- v. Use assigned aviation callsigns.
- vi. Report aircraft movements clearly.
- vii. Ground personnel must identify their location when coordinating with aircraft.
- viii. Pilots must confirm friendly locations before conducting attack support.

08. COMMAND & LEADERSHIP

- i. Leaders are responsible for their personnel.
- ii. Leaders must communicate objectives clearly.
- iii. Leaders must maintain situational awareness.
- iv. Leaders must delegate appropriately.
- v. Leaders must make decisions when required.
- vi. Leaders must accept responsibility for their decisions.
- vii. Leaders must not abuse authority.
- viii. Leaders must correct misconduct.
- ix. Leaders must maintain professional standards.

09. OPERATIONAL SECURITY

- i. Do not disclose restricted KSOL information.
- ii. Do not distribute internal documents without authorization.
- iii. Do not disclose operational plans outside authorized personnel.
- iv. Do not share internal communications publicly.
- v. Do not impersonate KSOL personnel.
- vi. Report suspected information compromise to command.

“MEN APART, EVERY MAN AN EMPEROR”

THIS PAGE IS INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK

END OF DOCUMENT